

Agility race

Players start at goal line and make a tight turn at each of the face off dots on their side of the ice then swing behind the net and race for a puck at center ice.

First player to puck looks to score and second player backchecks.